

Fall Festival of Art Rules - November 18, 2023

It is the responsibility of the artist to read and understand the rules of the show. The artist's signature is affirmation that the artist clearly understands and will comply with the rules.

1. All work must be the artist's own work. VAA members must abide by federal copyright laws.
2. All artists understand that emergency aisles must be left open and clear of any obstruction.
3. The artist will be responsible for any damage done to neighboring artist's table and/or items as a result of his/her unsecured or improper use of space.
4. Neither the VAA nor The Villages Recreation Department assumes any liability for damages.
5. The artist understands and agrees that their displayed artwork must remain in place until the completion of the show at 2 pm.
6. If non-qualified pieces of art are displayed, the artist will be asked to remove such pieces from view.
7. Artist must be current with club dues and be an active participating member of the VAA.
8. Art with political, religious, or nudity are not allowed.
9. Registration dates and deadlines are stated on the application; submissions postmarked prior to the stated dates will not be accepted. Assignments are allotted based on USPS date stamp.
10. You will receive an email to inform you of your room and space assignment. If your choices could not be accommodated, you will be contacted with additional options. A waiting list will be kept according to dates in the event of a cancellation.
11. Artists must use VAA art display cards for pricing their art which is found on the VAA website.
12. No "clearance" or "discount" signs or allowed.
13. Tables must be covered to the floor on all sides. All packing must be secured out of view. Spaces without tables may have room for easels or display screens that fit safely within 12'x6'. Each space will accommodate 2 – 6' tables or 1 – 6' table and browse boxes or display screen.

